A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM

BY WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE

DIRECTED BY ALEX JOHNSON

Ill met by moonlight...

Mayhem Theatre Company return to Wimbledon with a magical outdoor production of Shakespeare's celebrated comedy A Midsummer Night's Dream. Following previous sell-out productions of The Merchant of Venice, Romeo & Juliet, Twelfth Night and Much Ado About Nothing, the beautiful setting of Cannizaro Park will once again provide a stunning backdrop for this year's open-air performances.

In this ever-popular comedy, a quartet of mismatched lovers spend a fateful, intoxicating night in an enchanted forest where sprites lurk and fairies rule. Chaos, confusion and trickery reign as chief mischief-maker Puck ensures that the course of true love is anything but smooth. Games of fantasy, love and dreams ensue in this joyful, accessible and memorable interpretation of one of Shakespeare's most loved comedies.

Performed in the round with amplified sound, audiences are asked to bring their own seating (blankets or chairs) and picnics are more than welcome.
